

Glassware / Thu, 26th February 2026 / Lot 1803

LOT 1803

An Edinburgh Crystal Thistle pattern part suite of glass, comprising four white wine, height 13cm, two sherry, height 11cm, four port, height 12cm, five large wine, height 16.5cm, six brandy balloons, height 13cm, two tumblers, height 10cm, four tumblers, height 8cm, six highballs, height 14.5cm, two wines, height 12.5cm, water jug, height 15.5cm, decanter and stopper, height 27cm, one footed peach melba bowl, one finger bowl, one small circular bowl, diameter 14cm, five old fashioned, height 9.5cm, and five champagne flutes, height 17.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Two of the large 16.5cm wines have small chips/nicks to the top rim edges.

One 11cm high sherry has two small nicks to the top rim edge.

One 8cm high tumbler has a minor manufacturing blemish to the top rim edge.

Otherwise the items in the lot are in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

The majority of items in the lot have an acid etched Edinburgh Crystal mark to their base, the style of mark varies throughout the lot.

Created: Wed, 18th February 2026 12:58