

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th February 2026 / Lot 1426

LOT 1426

A New Hall porcelain part service, circa 1800, painted with puce rosettes within gilt frames joined by gilt dotted garlands, comprising a silver shaped teapot and cover, sucrier and cover, nine teabowls, one saucer and a saucer dish, diameter 20cm, together with a small collection of Caughley painted in cobalt blue and gilt, comprising four coffee cups, two teabowls and two saucers, two facet cut wines, height 15.5cm, and a small group of other items (some faults and repairs).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

New Hall;

Teapot with minute nick to tip of finial and wear to gilding of handle, otherwise in good condition. Gilding and enamels good and bright.

Sucrier and cover in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Gilding and enamels good and bright.

7 teabowls in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, 2 with minor chips to the rim.

Saucer dish in good condition with light rubbing to gilt rim.

Saucer with hairline and firing crack to rim.

Caughley;

Coffee cups - one with small chip and crack, otherwise all ok with rubbing to the gilt rims.

Both teabowls in good order with light wear.

One saucer with haircrack.

Pair wines in good condition with no damage or repairs.

Green ground Minton cup and saucer - both pieces extensively glued and repaired.

Green ground jug crazed and stained.

Dresden cup and saucer - saucer damaged, cup with light wear.