

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th February 2026 / Lot 1410

LOT 1410

A Mason's Mandalay pattern part service, comprising two graduated oval platters, longest 43cm, three tureens and covers, soup tureen, cover and stand with ladle, six plates 26.5cm diameter, eight plates 25.3cm diameter, eight plates 22.8m diameter, eight plates 19.8cm diameter, two sauce boats and stands, eight plates 17.2cm diameter, eight two-handled soup bowls and stands and a jug, height 17cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

Smaller oval platter – crazed.

One circular tureen and cover with fine crazing – other two both in good condition.

Rectangular tureen, cover, ladle and stand with crazing, otherwise ok.

Both sauceboat stands crazed but ok.

One soup bowl cracked, another with some crazing, one with tiny blemish to rim, others ok.

Serpent handled jug with chip to rim.

6 largest plates each crazed.

2 of the 19.8cm diameter plates crazed, others ok.

2 17.2cm diameter plates crazed, others ok.

3 22.8cm diameter plates crazed, others ok.

1 saucer crazed, others ok.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with no damage or crazing. There may be some minor surface scratches/knife cuts, but nothing untoward or terrible.

Created: Thu, 19th February 2026 10:22