

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th February 2026 / Lot 1479

LOT 1479

A Crystal Palace Art Union Copeland Parian bust of Edward Prince of Wales, sculpted by Marshall Wood, raised on a socle base, impressed marks, height 32cm, together with a smaller pair of Parian busts depicting Shakespeare and Milton, height 22cm (one repaired).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

The dirt is mostly superficial and I'm sure the majority would clean off, perhaps with professional assistance.
Prince of Wales – in good condition overall with short horizontal indistinct faint hairline to back of neck at base of hair. A few minor nicks to top of socle which are difficult to see when in position.
Shakespeare – clean visibly glued break through base of bust above socle. Small chip to front corner of collar.
Milton – in good condition overall.

Created: Thu, 19th February 2026 12:29