

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th February 2026 / Lot 1450

LOT 1450

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware vase, dated 1887, decorated by Hannah Barlow, monogrammed, with a continuous band of grazing horses and geese outside a farmyard barn, between stylized foliate and geometric borders, impressed and incised marks to base, height 31.5cm (minor professional restoration to foot).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

Narrow area of professional restoration to the outer edge of the foot approx 3cm long, only noticeable on close inspection if you know what you are looking for.

Minute pinhead sized nick to outer rim edge of neck.

Otherwise in good condition.

Created: Mon, 23rd February 2026 12:56