

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 26th February 2026 / Lot 1522

LOT 1522

A matched pair of Royal Doulton Slaters Patent stoneware vases, early 20th century, decorated by Ethel Beard, monogrammed, with a foliate design against a textured ground, impressed and incised marks to bases, height 30cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

Both vases in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There is some typical wear/rubbing to the gilding commensurate with age and handling.

Created: Wed, 25th February 2026 11:37