LOT 1517

A pair of Volkstedt bisque porcelain plaques, early 20th century, each relief moulded with a classical maiden and putto in white against a pale blue ground within scroll moulded edges, blue printed mark to reverse of both, 27cm high (minor faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Maiden with outstretched arms -putti has a relief left arm which has a glued repair to the wrist and is missing all the fingers and thumb, maiden missing right big toe, small chip to one of relief scrolls along top edge which is hardly noticeable apart from on close inspection.

Other maiden - in good condition overall with tiny nick to one of relief scrolls on base edge which is only noticeable on very close inspection.
