

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 4th March 2026 / Lot 3516

LOT 3516

A fine late 18th century flintlock pistol with octagonal barrel, barrel length 19.5cm, line border engraved lock, hammer and pan cover, full-stocked with engraved steel furniture, finely chequered grips and pull-out steel ramrod (action works at half and full cock).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

Please request a condition report, if required.

Additional Comments

There appears to be three proof stamps to top of barrel, each gilded, the mark indistinct but appear to be crossed sabres. No signs of any makers' name.

Created: Fri, 27th February 2026 11:25