

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 4th March 2026 / Lot 3502

LOT 3502

A mid to late 19th century United States Colt .36 five-shot percussion revolver, serial number 102880, with octagonal barrel, barrel length 12.5cm, marked 'Address Col Colt New York City', nipple foresight, round cylinder action, engraved with stagecoach scene and marked 'Colts Patent No 102830', the frame marked 'Colts Patent', brass trigger guard, figured walnut plate grips and hinged-action rammer, matching serial numbers throughout.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

3502. Gun has been restored, but some time ago. Frames and barrel quite overcleaned with no original finish remaining. Rammer quite sloppy. Cylinder quite worn with nearly all definition lost. Grips cleaned and re-finished. Action works full and half cock.

Created: Mon, 2nd March 2026 10:27