LOT 2601

A 19th century papier-mâché barking model of a French bulldog, with glass eyes and a pull-chain operating the bark and articulated jaw, length 57cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

2601. Barking mechanism and jaw are in working condition. There is the fairly typical surface wear across the whole model, as well as a few surface cracks around edges. A few points have had some minor touched-up repairs to edges of ears and feet. Some loss to the hair around the collar and edges of face.
