LOT 2656

An early Victorian pollard oak and brass bound six-bottle tantalus, the sides with recessed handles, the interior with a set of six cut glass decanters and a partial set of glasses, width 30cm (some faults).

Estimate: £350 - £450

Condition Report

2656. Slightly dried out top with some minor cracking and minor loss to the veneer. The brass edge is slightly bent on the two sides of the lid and small piece of veneer missing on left side. The decanters are not the originals and two have chips to corners. Three glasses missing, others ok. Some general surface wear to interior.
