

Needleworks, Textiles and Clothing / Thursday, 16th April 2026 / Lot 2802

LOT 2802

A group of three family wedding dresses, comprising an early 20th century cream silk and lace dress, length 126cm, a 1940s cream silk dress with long train and a 1960s ivory-toned dress with sleeved machine lace bodice, labelled 'Emerson'.

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

2802. The earliest dress has some serious deterioration to the silk at the shoulders, as well as some loose stitching around collar and hem, where some lacework may have been detached, as it looks quite unfinished. The other two dresses both have some areas of minor staining but are generally ok.

Created: Tue, 14th April 2026 09:29