

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th April 2026 / Lot 1576

LOT 1576

Two West German Ruscha Pottery Filigran items, circa 1960, designed by Adele Bolz, both with incised mermaid and fish decoration against a mottled white lava type glaze, lilac glazed interiors, the first a cylindrical vase, height 24cm, the second a single handled jug, height 16.5cm, indistinct moulded numeral marks to bases (minor chips).

Estimate: £60 - £80

---

Condition Report

Vase - approx 4cm long vertical indistinct haircrack to top rim, only noticeable on closer inspection. Small approx 0.5cm square flat chip to outer edge of foot.

Jug - small approx 0.5cm square flat chip to outer edge of footrim, otherwise ok with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Wed, 22nd April 2026 10:26