

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th April 2026 / Lot 1547

LOT 1547

A Staffordshire pottery bocage figure of a cow and snake, early 19th century, the cow modelled with raspberry patches, standing with a snake attacking its left hind leg, on a green and yellow decorated rainbow type moulded base, height 17cm (restoration).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Overall fine crazing to the glaze.

Approximate 1cm long by 0.5cm wide flat chip to outer edge of base beneath tail of cow.

One udder made up/restored.

Professional restoration to tail, small section of bocage, through neck of cow and to horns and ears.

Possibly missing some bocage prior to restoration of that which is remaining.

Hairline around front left ankle of cow.

Created: Fri, 24th April 2026 12:26