

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th April 2026 / Lot 1433

LOT 1433

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware Queen Victoria Diamond Jubilee commemorative jug, decorated with old and young portraits of the Queen on an inscribed band, height 18cm, together with a small group of other Doulton stonewares, comprising a two-handled vase decorated with floral medallions within white beaded frames against a ground of incised diamonds, height 20cm, a cauldron planter with gilt whorl ground, height 14cm, tobacco jar and cover, a pair of vases, height 10cm, two other vases and a salt and pepper (faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A PARTIAL CONDITION REPORT ON THIS LOT ONLY DETAILING THE TOBACCO JAR;

Tobacco jar and cover - in good condition overall with no cracks or restoration, a few minuscule flea bite nicks to cover and small spot of glaze rubbing to centre of one relief medallion.

Created: Mon, 27th April 2026 09:57