

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th April 2026 / Lot 1614

LOT 1614

A gilt metal mounted pottery oil lamp base, late 19th century, painted with butterflies and white lilies against a gilt enriched mottled brown glazed ground, the gilt metal base with pierced detail and four scroll feet, fitted with a Mitre burner, overall height 33cm.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Typical fine crazing to the glaze.

Decoration and gilding in good order.

Gilt metal mounts with typical wear commensurate with age and handling.

Burner mechanism not guaranteed to be in working order. Missing chimney and shade.

Metal collar which shade would sit on if present has some tears/cracks and a small missing section to the rim edge.

Created: Mon, 27th April 2026 10:07