

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th April 2026 / Lot 1572

LOT 1572

A Roth Keramik Lozenge shape vase, 1970s, shape No. 311, probably designed by Dorothea Roth, moulded with glossy purple glazed shapes within and against a blue outlined black and white lava glaze, moulded marks to base, height 26cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

---

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There are some very minor inconsistencies to the lava glaze as a result of the manufacturing process, these are few and far between and only noticeable on very close inspection with a keen eye.

Some fine crazing visible to the purple glazed areas.

Created: Mon, 27th April 2026 12:43