

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th April 2026 / Lot 1406

LOT 1406

A group of British and Continental pottery and porcelain animal and bird models, late 19th and 20th century, including a Royal Copenhagen group of two tethered geese, circa 1990, model No. 609, designed by Ingeborg Nielsen, a Copenhagen model of a fawn, three models by Karl Ens, two Royal Dux piglets, a Royal Doulton poodle, HN2631, and a Volkstedt ostrich, height 18cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A PARTIAL CONDITION REPORT ON THIS LOT JUST DETAILING THE KARL ENS ITEMS;

Crested Tit has very minor manufacturing blemish to end of tail resulting in slight roughness, otherwise each of the Karl Ens birds is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 28th April 2026 09:53