

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th April 2026 / Lot 1418

LOT 1418

Eighteen Beswick Beatrix Potter's figures, comprising Benjamin Bunny, Mr Jeremy Fisher, Pig-Wig, Mrs Rabbit, Tommy Brock, Mr Alderman Ptolemy, Miss Moppet, The Old Woman Who Lived In A Shoe Knitting, Hunca Munca, Jemima Puddleduck, Sir Isaac Newton, Flopsy, Mopsy and Cottontail, Mrs Tiggy Winkle, Jemima Puddleduck Made A Feather Nest, Amiable Guinea-Pig and Old Mr Brown, each mark BP-3b, Miss Moppet with mark BP-2 and Sally Henny Penny with mark BP-3a, together with a Royal Albert model of Mrs Tiggy Winkle Takes Tea, two Royal Doulton Brambly Hedge figures, two Wedgwood Oakapple Wood figures and a Coalport figure Speckledy Hen (minor faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

Both Tom Kittens with chipped ears.

Middle bunny of Flopsy, Mopsy and Cottontail with one glued ear.

Sally Henny Penny with small flat chip to footrim, not really noticeable when on a flat surface.

Old Woman Who Lived In A Shoe Knitting with small glazed over manufacturing blemish to one ear.

Pig-Wig with chipped ears.

Mr Jeremy Fisher with small chip to front edge of base.

Remaining items in the lot are in good condition.

Created: Wed, 29th April 2026 09:40