

Objects of Virtu / Thursday, 11th June 2026 / Lot 2353

LOT 2353

An early Victorian mother-of-pearl and silver folding fruit knife and fork, the grips finely carved with Prince of Wales feather plumes, hallmarked Sheffield 1842 by Ashforth & Harthorn, unfolded length 15cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

2353. Some very minor wear, but otherwise in good condition. They still operate and click into place when open.

Created: Thu, 4th June 2026 10:35