LOT 1094

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain teapot and matched cover, Yongzheng period, the low-bellied body painted with peony sprays above pink moulded fluting, flanked by a naturalistic green glazed branch spout and handle, height 11.5cm (restoration).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1094 - The teapot has been broken in half including a break across the handle and has been re-glued and restored. The restoration and overpainting is a good professional job. Typical light surface scratches and wear to enamels. Cover is the same period but matched.
