

Jewellery / Wednesday, 8th July 2026 / Lot 639

LOT 639

A Victorian gold, ruby, emerald and half-pearl ring in a twistover design, the underside with a glazed locket compartment, unmarked, weight 1.7g, ring size approx H1/2, with a case.

Estimate: £180 - £220

Condition Report

One of the emeralds is chipped.

Some general abrasion and wear to the rubies.

Half-pearl is in good condition, no signs of wear.

The glazed compartment isn't flush with the ring, possibly reglued in. Slight nibbling to the edges.

The ring has possibly been re-shanked in the past.

Created: Fri, 3rd July 2026 12:41