

Jewellery / Wednesday, 8th July 2026 / Lot 545

LOT 545

A Carrington gold and platinum, nephrite, citrine and diamond brooch, mid-20th century, designed as a spray of carved oak leaves and three acorns, detailed 'Carrington T&B', weight 14.7g, width 4.4cm. Note: Carrington & Co was a highly prestigious London silversmith and court jeweller who produced many pieces for the Royal Family including some of the late Queen Elizabeth II's most iconic pieces.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,000

Condition Report

545. The brooch is in generally excellent good clean condition with no damage or repairs.

Created: Wed, 8th July 2026 09:42