

Clocks and Barometers / Thursday, 16th July 2026 / Lot 1170

LOT 1170

An impressive late 19th century French ormolu mantel clock, the eight day movement striking on a bell via an outside countwheel, the backplate with stamped 'Vincenti & Cie' mark, the 5½-inch white enamelled circular convex dial with blue Roman hour numerals and detailed 'Hatton Paris', the drum shaped case surmounted with a flower charged urn, flanked by standing figures of Cupid and another cherub, on a breakfront base with scroll legs, height 46cm, with pendulum and winding keys, ebonized plinth and glass dome (cracked).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1170. Clock is in good condition with no significant damage or repairs.

Dial in good clean condition.

Both trains of the movement wind smoothly and it is currently running, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.

The strike mechanism also in good working order with single strike on the half hour and then corresponding number on the hour.

Glass dome with significant crack.

Created: Thu, 9th July 2026 15:20