

Studio Pottery / Thursday, 23rd July 2026 / Lot 1495

LOT 1495

A set of six French L'Atelier du Grand Chêne Vallauris pottery plates, 1950s, each painted in shades of green and cobalt with a simplistic bird within a border of leaves, all with incised oak tree mark to reverse, diameter 23cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Two of the plates have a small spot of glaze flake to the underside rim edge, both inconsequential and nothing of importance.

Otherwise each plate is in good condition with no damage or restoration.

The glaze is typically crazed throughout.

Created: Mon, 20th July 2026 11:39