

Prints, Maps and Posters / Wednesday, 5th August 2026 / Lot 25

LOT 25

English School (18th century) - St James's Square, London, engraving with hand-colouring, published 1754 for Stowe's Survey, 35.5cm x 47cm, within a gilt composition frame, together with four further hand-coloured engravings, comprising 'A North East View of Westminster' after Canaletto, 'A View of Greenwich Hospital taken from the River' by Millam, 'Port of London in 1839' after Thomas Allom, and 'The Thames at Richmond' after G.H. Andrews, unframed (5).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Main lot under glass, vertical creases from folding, paper discoloured, needs cleaning.; Unframed part lots all discoloured consisted with age, some peripheral nicks/tears, need cleaning.

Created: Wed, 29th July 2026 12:50