

Prints, Maps and Posters / Wednesday, 5th August 2026 / Lot 29

LOT 29

After A.H. Wilds - 'Perspective view of Oriental Place, West Cliff, Brighton leading to the Athenaeum and Oriental Gardens', aquatint by George Hunt with later hand-colouring, 26cm x 42cm, together with four further views of Brighton Pavilion, comprising 'The New North Entrance to the Pavillion', 'The Pavilion at Brighton' by T. Sutherland, 'View of Brighton, from the Old Steine', published by L. Bruce, and 'Pavilion' the Music Room, aquatint by M. Dubourg after Pugin, with hand-colouring, variously framed, and a further small group of unframed prints of the Pavilion (5 + tube). Provenance: from the estate of a Sussex gentleman.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

Wilds, under glass, paper very discoloured, needs cleaning. All part lots under glass, paper discoloured, need cleaning.

Created: Wed, 29th July 2026 12:54