

Prints, Maps and Posters / Wednesday, 5th August 2026 / Lot 30

LOT 30

J. Sleath - 'Plan of Brighton and its Environs, drawn from actual surveys', engraving with hand-colouring, published by W. Saunders, 53cm x 73cm, within a Hogarth style frame, together with two further hand-coloured aquatints, 'View of the Pavilion and Steyne at Brighton, with the Promenade' and 'Fashions for Summer 1831' by B. Read, outside the Pavilion, both within gilt frames, and 'Mrs Fitzherbert' after Richard Cosway, colour stipple engraving, within a decorative composition gilt frame (3). Provenance: from the estate of a Sussex gentleman.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Sleath, under glass, fold creases visible, paper very stained and discoloured, needs cleaning. ♦View♦, paper discoloured, some silverfish damage; Fashions under glass, paper rubbed and discoloured. Mrs Fitzherbert, paper rippled, paper discoloured consistent with age.

Created: Wed, 29th July 2026 12:55