LOT 2913

A Shirvan rug, South-east Caucasus, early 20th century, the deep terracotta field with an overall design of serrated leaves, palmettes and plants, within a complimentary border, 250cm x 166cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2913. One end has a central area of wear to foundation, but general pile is quite good.

One small area has a few small patches of old moth damage.

One end is slightly crinkled, but it sits fairly flat.

The sides are a little frayed, but the rug seems to be clean.

Both ends have a cloth tape attached to rear side for added strength.
