

Advertising and Transport / Thursday, 6th August 2026 / Lot 2395

LOT 2395

An early 20th century French sky blue leather motor car racing helmet, the inside label detailed 'Super Champion', together with racing goggles and stand, thought to have been originally owned by René Dreyfus (1905-1993), who won the Monaco Grand Prix in 1930.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2395. Some overall wear and scuffs to both helmet and goggles, with consistent wear to both the chin strap and elastic head strap.

Created: Tue, 4th August 2026 11:30