LOT 652

A platinum and diamond single stone pendant, claw set with a circular cut diamond, detailed 'Plat 950', diamond weight approx 1.52ct, diamond clarity grade approx I1/2, colour grade approx F/G, length 1.3cm.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

There is a fairly large but not deep internal fissure running beneath one claw and across the table of the stone. It doesn't appear to break the surface of the stone

There is another area of internal fissure on the opposite side of the stone, clustered around the girdle near another claw. This does appear to break the surface of the stone, along the girdle.

There are no black carbon spots.

The pendant is in generally good condition, minimal wear.
