LOT 2187

A 19th century French cherry farmhouse table, fitted with a pull-out slide and drawer, on square tapering legs, height 77cm, length 220cm, depth 88cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2187. The table is in generally good order and has an even finish throughout, with some evidence of historic minor woodworm in some areas. There is one small nail head poking up from the surface of the table top. The pull-out board is generally known as a bread board, but is basically just an extension. Measurements are without.
