LOT 1560

A Meissen porcelain pierced cabinet plate, late 19th Century, the cobalt blue ground painted to the centre with a gardener and his female companion beside a water font, within a gilt foliate scroll frame, the gilt enriched rim pierced with trellis and foliate panels heightened with blue floral medallions, the rim underside with further gilt detail, crossed swords in underglaze blue to base with impressed numerals, diameter 25.5cm.

Estimate: £600 - £800

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no restoration or significant damage.

No crazing and the enamels and gilding are good and strong with no signs of wear.

There are a few absolute minuscule nicks to the pierced edges on the underside rim, only noticeable on VERY close inspection and nothing fundamentally to worry about.
