LOT 1570

A Paul Milet Sèvres gilt metal mounted circular box and cover, early 20th century, the turquoise glazed ground with gilt metal mounts to the rim edges, the centre of the cover mounted with a circular bisque medallion depicting Cupid and a kneeling classical maiden, green printed mark to base of box, diameter 13.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

There is a faint vertical hairline to the base section running from the rim to the foot, only noticeable to the interior when held in the right light, and a few very minor scuffs to the top glazed edge of the base section. There are a couple of long scratches to the glaze on the underside of the base.

The cover has a small approx 0.5cm square chip to the inner rim edge, not visible when placed on the base section, and a number of tiny glaze nicks to the outer side of the turquoise glazed rim edge - which are also not visible when the cover is in place on the base section.

The bisque medallion is in good order but would benefit from a clean.

The mounts are all good. No discolouration or tarnishing

The cover sits on the base well.
