LOT 1607

A King William IV and Queen Adelaide coronation commemorative pearlware mug, circa 1831, printed in pink with a titled half length portrait 'Most Gracious Majesty William IV, King of Great Britain', in his coronation robes, opposing a titled half length portrait 'Her Most Gracious Majesty Adelaide, Queen of Great Britain', flanking a crown surmounted on a cushion, the rim with moulded detail edged in blue, height 10cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

There is a professionally restored area running vertically at an angle from the area just above the crown, down the left side of the crown and across the left corner of the cushion the crown is on, down into the footrim and part of the base beneath this area. It is well executed restoration and only really apparent with a trained eye where it encroaches onto the printed decoration.

There is a 4cm long firing crack to the middle of the body running horizontally behind the handle - please see images 1 and 4 on our website using the zoom function.

There is a small stained blemish to the mug interior just beneath the rim - a manufacturing issue I would suggest.
