LOT 1550

A rare Minton majolica flower holder, dated 1877, modelled by Paul Comolera as a squirrel beside a tree trunk, the mottled blue and brown glazed trunk applied with nuts and leaves which the squirrel is heading towards, the trunk with turquoise glazed interior, impressed marks to base with shape No. 2070, height 28cm (minor chips).

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

Overall the piece is in good condition with no restoration or cracks.

There is a 3cm long narrow chip along the top edge of the tree trunk on the opposite side to the squirrel - please see image 5 on our website.

There is a tiny chip to the top edge of the squirrel's left ear - please see images 6 and 7 on our website.

One of the applied green leaves on the base has a tiny blemish and nick to its tip.

Minimal crazing to the glaze.
