LOT 1621

A Moorcroft yellow ground Edward VIII Coronation commemorative tobacco box and cover, dated 1937, of circular shape decorated with a crown opposing an orb and sceptre beneath an inscribed band, impressed marks to base with facsimile signature and brown painted signature, diameter 14.5cm. Provenance: From the estate of a Sussex gentleman. Purchased from Toovey's, Lot 1597, 20th October 2022.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Small area of professional restoration to top rim of base section above the 'EDW' of Edward, it does not encroach into the letters themselves.

The top of the spherical knob on the cover has a 1.5cm long firing crack to it.

Otherwise in good condition overall.

No crazing to the glaze.
