LOT 1639

A Royal Worcester Hadley Ware two-handled potpourri vase and cover, dated 1905, shape No. 241, of lobed bulbous shape with gilt enriched branch and leaf handles and feet, painted with pink roses against a bluish ground, the cover pierced, green printed, red painted and incised marks to base, height 18cm (some restoration), together with a Hadley's Worcester two-handled vase with matched cover, 1900-02, shape No. 121, painted with pink and yellow flowers within blue and green gilt enriched moulded borders, height 19cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Potpourri with branch handles and feet - professionally restored vertical crack to neck rim approx 3cm long. One foot has very small chip to its tip end which is only noticeable on very close inspection. Narrow approx 1cm long professionally restored chip to edge of cover. Otherwise ok.

Two handled vase - the cover is matched and has a small firing crack to its underside rim edge, otherwise it is in good condition. The main body is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, but it does have some minor scratches to the outer edges of the blue glazed handles.
