LOT 1510

Three pieces of Moorcroft Pottery decorated in the Pomegranate pattern, circa 1916 and later, comprising a biscuit barrel with plated rim, overhead handle and plated cover, height to top of handle 22cm, a vase of baluster shape, height 17.5cm, and a silver mounted ashtray, hallmarked Sheffield 1922, diameter 10cm, various impressed and painted marks to bases (faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Biscuit barrel - overall fine crazing to the glaze with some staining visible to the underside. Small crack to footrim underside which encroaches slightly onto the outer edge. Plating on metal mounts basically devoid. Some light surface scratches to the pottery, nothing untoward.

Vase - Overall crazing to the glaze and with some light surface scratches. There is a noticeable approx 4cm long vertical crack to the neck rim which has a branch coming off horizontally which also measures approx 4cm long. There are a few glaze blemishes/marks to the body and the outer edge of the foot has a lot of limescale like adhesion to its outer edge which I'm sure would ultimately clean off.

Ashtray - overall crazing to the glaze and small chip to inner edge of footrim. Haircrack running around approx half of the body beneath the silver rim.
