

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 24th September 2026 / Lot 1642

LOT 1642

A rare Hadley's Worcester Faience potpourri bowl and pierced cover, 1897-1900, shape No. F120, the circular base painted with flowers against a blush ground, flanked by green and gilt scroll handles with animal head mask terminals, the high domed cover with foliate scroll pierced band to the edge and pointed finial, similarly painted, green printed and red painted marks to base, height 25cm, together with two other floral painted blush ground Hadley's Worcester Faience vases and covers, the first shape No. 169B, height 18cm, the second two-handled, shape No. 187, height 17cm, printed and painted marks to bases (minor faults). Note: the first item in this lot is illustrated by Peter Woodger, 'James Hadley & Sons Artist Potters Worcester', p.68.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Potpourri shape F120 - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Vase shape 169B - knop of cover professionally restored back into position, main body with two short vertical haircracks to neck rim and another similar branched hairline to edge of foot.

Two handled vase shape 187 - knop professionally restored back onto cover, otherwise cover and main body in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 22nd September 2026 13:25