

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 24th September 2026 / Lot 1644

LOT 1644

A Hadley's Worcester Batchelor's teapot and cover and matched jug, 1900-05, both painted with yellow roses against an ivory ground within green glazed moulded borders, jug shape No. 257, height 9cm, green printed and red painted marks to bases, together with two pieces of blush ground Hadley Worcester painted with apricot coloured roses within cobalt blue and gilt moulded borders, comprising a small vase, shape No. 212, height 7.5cm, and an inkwell with integral stand, removable well and matched cover, shape No. 207.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Teapot - professional restoration to flange where cover sits and attached flared rim edge above handle area, otherwise main body and cover ok.

Jug - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Vase - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, minor rubbing to gilding.

Inkwell - very faint approx 2cm long hairline visible to underside of integral stand at one 'corner', minuscule nick to tip of one cobalt 'point' at one end, otherwise in good condition overall. Well in good condition. Cover professionally restored with wear to gilt knob.

No crazing to any piece.

Created: Thu, 17th September 2026 14:36