

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 24th September 2026 / Lot 1566

LOT 1566

A set of five Berlin porcelain cabinet plates, 19th century, painted with scattered flowers, fruit, vegetables and insects within a pink rose wreath hung from pink ribbons, the pierced rim edges punctuated with low relief pink flowerheads and outlined in gilt, underglaze blue sceptre mark to bases, diameter 24.3cm (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

Overall the enamels and gilding on the plates are in good condition with no real signs of wear. Each plate 'rings' nicely when tapped. No crazing.

First plate - small chip to underside rim and edge of one pierced loop.

Second plate - small chip to one looped section of rim which is visible to the upper and lower surfaces.

Third plate - missing two looped sections from rim edge.

Fourth plate - missing three looped sections from rim edge and with short hairline to one of these areas.

Fifth plate - missing two looped sections from rim edge.

Created: Thu, 17th September 2026 15:23