

Glassware / Thu, 24th September 2026 / Lot 1885

LOT 1885

A Sam Herman studio glass vase, of freeform blown bottle shape, the mottled pink ground cased body detailed with striations of colour and splashes of metallic iridescence to both sides, engraved marks to base including 'CAM66' and remains of original applied paper label, height 26cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or repairs.

There are some minor typical surface scratches commensurate with age and handling, nothing untoward.

There is a pinhead sized blemish/nick to the base edge at one end, hardly noticeable unless the vase is inverted and viewed very closely.

Created: Fri, 18th September 2026 09:29