LOT 1855

A good Daum Nancy Mushroom (Champignon) two-handled glass vase, circa 1908, the U-shaped body of mottled yellow colour, acid etched, wheel carved and painted with a variety of different sized mushrooms sprouting from a grass and leaf detailed base, enamelled mark to base 'Daum Nancy' with the cross of Lorraine, height 19.8cm.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,000

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

The top rim edge has a slight unevenness to its finish which I would suggest is a manufacturing issue. There is also a slightly polished spot where the textured ground is lost just beneath the top rim edge on one side.
