

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 24th September 2026 / Lot 1532

LOT 1532

A small group of Jasperwares, late 19th and early 20th century, comprising a Wedgwood dark blue dip dressing table tray of canted corner rectangular shape, typically sprigged with Classical figures within a berried laurel edge, length 26.5cm, a cheese dome and cover, a Wedgwood pale blue Jasper dip tobacco jar with tamper and cover and a Wedgwood biscuit barrel with plated mounts and cover, together with a cranberry flashed engraved and cut decanter and stopper decorated with fruiting vine, height 19cm, with six matching shot glasses, another decanter and stopper and two other pieces (faults and repairs).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A PARTIAL CONDITION REPORT ONLY DETAILING CERTAIN ITEMS IN THE LOT

Dressing table tray - restored chip to underside rim edge.

Jasperware dome and stand - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Not Wedgwood.

Biscuit barrel and cover - plated mounts worn, starcrack visible to underside.

Tobacco Jar - cover with short haircrack to rim and a number of chips around edge, tamper ok, jar with professionally restored chip to top rim edge.

Flashed decanter and stopper - in good condition overall with no damage or repairs. The matching shot glasses are generally also in good condition, but 3 have chips to the top rim edge.

Created: Fri, 18th September 2026 16:05