LOT 1587

A Wedgwood Ordinary Lustre octagonal bowl, 1920s, designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones, decorated in pattern Z4825, with gilt tigers chasing a flaming pearl against a mottled orange ground to the exterior and similar tigers to the interior against a mother-of-pearl ground, gilt printed Portland Vase mark to base, diameter 22.3cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks or chips. There would appear to be some minimal very well executed professional restoration to one face and part of the underside.

The bowl still 'rings' nicely.

Gilding and enamels remain good with minor typical wear overall commensurate with age and handling, nothing untoward, e.g., some scratches to base underside.

As part of the manufacturing process there are some white marks visible beneath the orange ground to the exterior along the lengths of the angles of each face of the bowl.
