

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 24th September 2026 / Lot 1546

LOT 1546

A mixed group of mostly Art Deco style pottery, British and Continental, including a Crown Ducal Charlotte Rhead vase in the Granada pattern, height 18cm, a Royal Doulton Gnomes series ware plate, diameter 26.5cm, a Shelley Harmony octagonal bowl and similar hors d'oeuvre dish, two vases, a bowl and a jug by Hancock & Sons, a Pilkington's mottled green glazed plate, diameter 22cm, a Goldscheider model of a bush baby, two Doulton stoneware tobacco jars and covers, two Corona Ware lustre glazed vases, tallest 21cm, a Myott preserve pot and cover with integral spoon rest, a Taylor Tunnicliffe 'Brandy' decanter with basketweave moulded body and plate mounted neck rim and stopper, and an oil lamp painted with animals in the style of those found in the Lascaux caves in France (faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Shelley shell shaped Edward VIII pin dish with tiny nick to upper rim edge.

Aynsley daffodil decorated cream jug crazed but ok.

Silver mounted Davenport Imari mustard badly cracked.

Goldscheider bush baby crazed but ok.

Hancock vases and jug crazed but ok.

Hancock bowl not crazed and ok.

Gnomes plate badly crazed with some haircracks.

Square plate with fairy on crazed with chips to underside rim edge.

Wade Pegasus with small chips to footrim.

Both tobacco jars with chipping to top rim edge and edges of cover.

Green glazed dog with small bruise/crack to one paw.

Remaining items in the Lot are in good condition overall.

Created: Mon, 21st September 2026 10:40