

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 24th September 2026 / Lot 1601

LOT 1601

A matched pair of Meissen figures, late 19th century, the first, modelled after Acier, as a shepherd attaching a love letter to a dove, a sheep at his feet, incised 'F.73' to base, the second as a shepherdess adorning a lamb with a blue ribbon, incised 'F.68' to base, both on a circular base with gilt enriched moulded detail to the side edge, underglaze blue crossed swords marks to bases, 18.5cm high (some faults and restoration).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Man - some chipping to back edge of circular base. Sheep's left ear professionally restored, also restoration to thumb and index finger of left hand and outer edge of frock coat running down right side which is flaking, 3 tiny restored chips to brim of hat, one of which has flaked.

Woman - hat brim restored with overall repainting to hat itself which has started to flake, sheep's right ear restored and re-stuck, missing sections of blue ribbon which are being tied around neck of sheep, missing relief foliage from tree stump.

Created: Mon, 21st September 2026 12:33