LOT 1658

A Rosenthal Versace Medusa pattern tea and coffee service in the Ikarus shape, designed by Paul Wunderlich, comprising teapot and cover, six teacups and saucers, coffee pot and cover, six coffee cups and saucers, milk jug and cover, cream jug and cover (small chip to tip of cover finial), and an oval sucrier and cover (tiny nick to inner rim edge of cover and flange of base), gilt and black printed marks to bases with remains of some original paper labels.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

Cream jug missing end of cover's finial.

Sugar bowl with tiny chip to inner flange of base on which cover sits, and very small nick to underside edge of cover - neither visible when cover in position.

Please see the images on our website using the zoom function.

Otherwise all pieces in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.

A number of the pieces still have applied paper retail labels to their bases, suggesting they have never been used.
