LOT 1469

Fourteen small Beswick bird models, including Robin, Wren, Nuthatch, Stonechat and Grey Wagtail, together with five similar Royal Worcester examples, including a pair of Coal Tits, an Aynsley bisque model of a Ptarmigan and a small group of other bird models, including Goebel, Capodimonte and a Continental model of a Hoopoe standing over a nest containing two eggs, height 13cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Tuscan China yellow canary with small glaze blemish to tip of tail - looks like a manufacturing issue.

Aynsley Ptarmigan with some minor nicks to base edge.

Beswick robin with glued repair to tail.

One of the Russian wrens has a chipped beak.

Continental Hoopoe has a minor chip to its head crest.

Otherwise all items in the Lot are in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration.
